

Tracing guide for lowercase 'e' and uppercase 'E'. The lowercase 'e' is formed by stroke 1: a counter-clockwise curve starting from a dot. The uppercase 'E' is formed by stroke 1: a vertical line down; stroke 2: a horizontal line across the top; stroke 3: a horizontal line across the middle; and stroke 4: a horizontal line across the bottom. Below the letters are three illustrations: a hand with fingers spread, an apple, and a donkey.

Tracing guide for lowercase 'e' and uppercase 'E'. The lowercase 'e' is formed by stroke 1: a counter-clockwise curve starting from a dot. The uppercase 'E' is formed by stroke 1: a vertical line down; stroke 2: a horizontal line across the top; stroke 3: a horizontal line across the middle; and stroke 4: a horizontal line across the bottom. Below the letters are three illustrations: a hand with fingers spread, an apple, and a donkey.

Tracing guide for lowercase 'e' and uppercase 'E'. The lowercase 'e' is formed by stroke 1: a counter-clockwise curve starting from a dot. The uppercase 'E' is formed by stroke 1: a vertical line down; stroke 2: a horizontal line across the top; stroke 3: a horizontal line across the middle; and stroke 4: a horizontal line across the bottom. Below the letters are three illustrations: a hand with fingers spread, an apple, and a donkey.

Tracing guide for lowercase 'e' and uppercase 'E'. The lowercase 'e' is formed by stroke 1: a counter-clockwise curve starting from a dot. The uppercase 'E' is formed by stroke 1: a vertical line down; stroke 2: a horizontal line across the top; stroke 3: a horizontal line across the middle; and stroke 4: a horizontal line across the bottom. Below the letters are three illustrations: a hand with fingers spread, an apple, and a donkey.

Tracing guide for lowercase 'e' and uppercase 'E'. The lowercase 'e' is formed by stroke 1: a counter-clockwise curve starting from a dot. The uppercase 'E' is formed by stroke 1: a vertical line down; stroke 2: a horizontal line across the top; stroke 3: a horizontal line across the middle; and stroke 4: a horizontal line across the bottom. Below the letters are three illustrations: a hand with fingers spread, an apple, and a donkey.

Tracing guide for lowercase 'e' and uppercase 'E'. The lowercase 'e' is formed by stroke 1: a counter-clockwise curve starting from a dot. The uppercase 'E' is formed by stroke 1: a vertical line down; stroke 2: a horizontal line across the top; stroke 3: a horizontal line across the middle; and stroke 4: a horizontal line across the bottom. Below the letters are three illustrations: a hand with fingers spread, an apple, and a donkey.